

Service Definition

Enterprise Architects (EAL) Information Security Architecture service helps clients to incrementally establish and implement best practice information security architecture, processes and policies. EAL uses a combination of SABSA, ISO 27001, 27002 methodologies to enable organisations to establish an information security posture, services and roadmap and overall governing architecture. Perform a security assessment to identify vulnerabilities and exposures and evaluate the currently documented policies and practices.

How we deliver this service

Phase 1 – Assess & Structure

- Stakeholder Interviews & Information Gathering
- Security Drivers
- Security Principles
- Information Security Governance

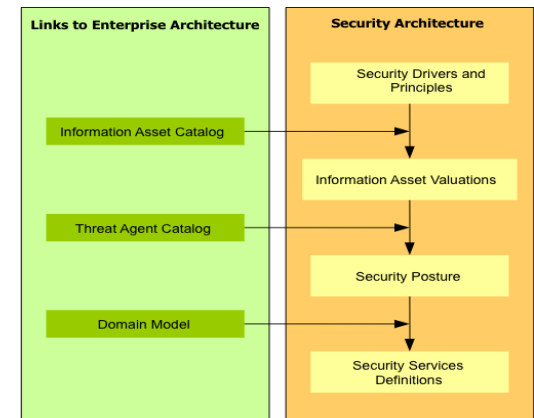

Phase 2 – Information Security Architecture Definition

- Security Valuations
- Security Postures
- Security Domains
- Security Services

Phase 3 – Information Security Architecture Planning

- Security Roadmap
- Security Operations, Processes and Policies
- Security Architecture Document

Deliverables

Clients that have used this service

المؤسسة العامة للتأمينات الإجتماعية
General Organization for Social Insurance

How we work with you

www.enterprisearchitects.eu/howweworkwithyou